Arson at the Wolfe House

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA – October 1, 2009

Reminiscing Books announces its latest publication, Fire Gazer: Arson at the Wolfe House, by Kevin Burton McGuire is now available.

Fire Gazer is a fictional account which may answer the question "Why would someone intentionally burn an historic treasure like the Thomas Wolfe boyhood home?"

Follow Ben Jennings around an Asheville, North Carolina that Thomas Wolfe would not have recognized. Ride along as Ben encounters visions of Zelda Fitzgerald, pagan rituals, a sub-culture embedded in the city's infrastructure, and fires of unknown origin.

Ben becomes enamored by DC, a charismatic drifter with a dark world vision, and he is forced to confront DC's rejection of culture and the art it produces.

Through Ben's private journal entries, learn of his struggle to overcome DC's destructive cynicism and his pursuit of an artistic vision. Will Ben follow his own artistic calling, or will he adopt DC's anti-social lifestyle? Hang on, as these two personalities collide and events spiral out of control!
